WINE ENTHUSIAST

31st December 2004

“Wine Enthusiast’s top 100 best buys of 2004!: 87 points. “A delicate feminine Chardonnay, exciting in that it has more nuance than you would expect for an $8 wine. The nose offers pretty citrus and olive scents, and it tastes a little like lemon pannacotta, dusted with some chalk. Mouth feel has a viscous, round texture.

RESTAURANT WINE

4th November 2004

“Four Stars-Excellent! “Screw cap. Very fruity, full bodied, and moderate in length. It tastes of pineapple, roasted nuts and lemon”.

SAN FRANCISCO CHRONICLE

7th October 2004

“the best wine on this list! “The 2004 Bulletin Place South Eastern Australia Chardonnay is, for my taste, the best wine on this list. Its aroma wets the palate with scents of pear, lemon, green apple and a hint of white fig. The initial taste is tartly acidic, with a strong lime flavour that fades into ripe pear, green apple and a hint of fig on the midpalate. Its fruitiness and acidity make it highly flexible with fish, chicken and vegetarian”.

WINE SPECTATOR

2nd March 2005

“Daily Wine Pick1” 85 points. “Light and appealing for its generous nectarine and spice flavours. Drink now”.

“A clean, leesy Chardonnay, soft with a sweet-tart balance. Match the toastiness to grilled fish. 86 points.

WINE AND SPIRITS

“Tart but generous with its currant and savoury herb flavours” 85 Points

RESTAURANT WINE

11th April 2004

“Four Stars, Excellent! Screw Cap. Rich and grapey in style, full bodied appealing Cabernet, with excellent length “.

- SHIRAZ 2003

WINE SPECTATOR WEEKLY

15th November 2004

“Wine Spectator’s Editors have selected this wine as the Best Buy of the week. Smooth, polished and generous with its peppery, blackberry, boysenberry and currant flavours, lingering on the round finish. Drink now through to 2008. 88 Points”.

NEWSWEEK

7th March 2005

“88 Points. Great wines are expensive, but today there are more good wines at great prices than ever before. And they come from all over the globe. Here are delicious wines for $8 or less. This is a very good version of Australia’s premier red show the typical peppery blackberry, boysenberry and currant flavors”.

- MERLOT 2003

RESTAURANT WINE

November 2004

“Four Stars-Excellent! Screw Cap. Full bodied, supple and moderately rich; a Merlot wit direct berry-like flavour and medium length”.
